This two-video set documents the music of Dream Theater and Liquid Tension Experiment. Video 1 features music from both Liquid Tension Experiment CDs and footage shot at Millbank Studios. Mike performs eight songs/segments and breaks down parts from each. In addition he explains how to develop a toolbox of fills and patterns to draw from. Featured throughout is the exclusive 'home footage' of the making of the first LTE album, as well as rare live footage shot at Beartracks Studios. Video 2 focuses on the music of Dream Theater and features footage shot at Beartracks Studios. Mike performs eleven songs from the Falling Into Infinity and Scenes From A Memory CDs and isolates the drum parts from each song. he also discusses playing in odd-time signatures, developing double bass technique, soloing and much more. Also included is live footage of Dream Theater from their 1998 World Tour.
